

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

COMMONWEALTH Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, greatly enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Warner Moore at a literary meeting held yesterday at noon in her home, No. 813 West Franklin Street.

Mrs. Benjamin L. Purcell, the chapter regent, attended and, as many of the chapter members had not been present at the turning over of the D. A. R. memorial building at Jamestown Island on October 8th, or at the annual State conference, held in Norfolk, the opening feature of yesterday's meeting was a talk from Mrs. Purcell on these two events.

Mrs. Purcell referred to the beauty of the weather on October 8th, as rendering the trip from Richmond to Jamestown a pleasure to all going down. Arriving at the island, Mrs. Purcell and her party had time to put the finishing touches in the way of flowers, to the rooms of the D. A. R. building, before the arrival of Mrs. McLean, the president-general of the national D. A. R. organization.

The Rev. Mr. Dickinson, rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter, this city, and the Rev. Mr. Tallit, of Chester, Pa., the guests at present, represented the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

Mrs. Purcell, afterward outlined the proceedings of the annual D. A. R. conference in Norfolk and the entertainments in connection with it. A paper on early Virginia literature was read by Mrs. Tyler, and Mrs. M. B. Thomas favored the chapter members with several vocal selections.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Moore and were thoroughly enjoyed by her guests.

Among the out-of-State Daughters of the American Revolution at Jamestown Island, on October 8th, in Mrs. McLean's party, there were, Mrs. Purcell said, representatives from many sections of the United States, and from all the original thirteen Colonies, the gathering being a most distinguished one.

Antenuptial Reception. Mrs. Rosa Harrison Pratt entertained last evening in her home, No. 210 East Cary Street, in honor of her daughter, Miss Ethel Scott Pratt, whose marriage to Mr. Willis Kenneth Neville, of Portsmouth, will be celebrated this afternoon in the Second Baptist Church at 3:30 o'clock.

The decorations were in pink and green, and the guests included the bride's party, some near relatives and a few intimate friends.

Off for New York. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rand and Mr. and Mrs. Lee de Graffie will leave for New York this morning in the Princeton-Cornell football game. Mr. Rand being an alumnus of Cornell.

The party will remain in New York until after the automobile show, which is the subject of much interest to the enthusiastic motorists in the United States.

Noted Miniaturist Here. Mr. J. C. Teifer, the artist who painted so exquisitely the miniature of the late Mrs. Brad Scott and Mrs. John Stewart, of Brook Hill, last winter, has returned to Richmond, and is now at No. 703 East Franklin Street. Mr. Teifer has brought with him the miniature executed during the past summer.

Admission—Coville. The engagement has been announced by the Paymaster and Mrs. Thomas Coville, U. S. N., of their daughter, Ethel, to S. N. The wedding will be a social event of the season, and will be held at the residence of the bride's parents, on the subject "Peace Movement."

The hostesses will be Mrs. S. V. Travers, Mrs. C. E. Borden, Mrs. R. L. Conquest and Miss Alice Winston, Annapolis.

Marriage of Estelle Garnett. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ellis, to Dr. William Gwatkin, of Louisville, Va., will be celebrated on October 30th, in the Essex Baptist Church, near the home of the bride, Lloyds, Va.

Mrs. Melville Broadus, of Caroline county, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Sallie, to Mr. William Dandridge Derrill, of Leesville, Va., to be celebrated on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 30th, in the Shiloh Methodist Church, Caroline county.

The engagement is announced of Miss Marie Magdalena Thomas, of Asbury Park, N. J., to Judge Alexander R. Mulvey, of Washington, the wedding to occur at the bride's home in November.

U. D. C. Called Meeting. Members of Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, are asked to attend the called meeting in Lee Camp Hall this morning at 11 o'clock.

All visiting Daughters are invited to be present.

Potter—Carr. In Virginia and Maryland, much interest is felt in the coming wedding of the beautiful Miss Gwendolyn Carr to Mr. Frank Potter, which will take place on October 21st, in St. Margaret's Chapel, Westminster, London.

Mr. Potter is a near relative of Bishop Potter, of New York, and is secretary of the American Legation in Madrid.

Miss Carr is the daughter of the late Sidney Carr, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Carr, who was a Miss Playford, of Pennsylvania, through whom Miss Carr inherited a large fortune.

Since her mother's death, Miss Carr has traveled continuously in Europe with her aunt, Miss Carr and her cousin, Mrs. Burton Harrison.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club. The next meeting of the Stay-at-Home Whist Club will be held at the residence of Mrs. Henningham Spillman, No. 909 Floyd Avenue, on Monday evening.

Mrs. Bland Smith and Miss Margaret Morson made the top score last Monday, when the club met with Mr. John Tyler, at No. 516 West Franklin Street. Three tables were engaged.

Personal Mention. Mrs. W. H. F. Lee, of Fairfax county, is at the Jefferson on her return from the Washington nuptials, celebrated last week in Tennessee.

Mrs. A. R. Chichester and Miss Chichester, of Stafford, have returned, after being in Richmond during the Episcopal Convention.
